

Ola

Technical Warehouse Lead

About Ola

Ola lives and works from Manchester with occasional travel to Leeds when required. Ola holds a BSC Computing Degree with extensive experience in the Microsoft BI Stack and applies this experience within LTHT DIT. Ola has a background in private and public roles, he sought a role that was diverse and challenging so when this role came up he had no hesitation in applying.

Profile

Male

British

Manchester

Developer

Loves

- Delivering data from single source of truth
- Working towards the build and delivery of insights from a cloud hosted data platform
- Helping to decommission the legacy environment footprint
- Promoting self-service data analyses
- Identifying & automating data processing

Challenges

- Use of new technology to help deliver the DIT vision requires extensive training
- Data quality and integrity within clinical systems is always a challenge
- Supporting short notice and time pressured data and information requirements to national bodies

Day in the life

Start work at 8am

Prepare statutory clinical/operating reporting

Finish work at 4pm

Review overnight processing jobs/logs

Collaborate in stand ups and tech meetings

Assist end users in data analysis